Sheriff's Safety Town kicks off
 Living Legacy project

A fundraising project to sell red maple and crepe myrtle trees that will be planted at Sheriff's Safety Town will help raise money for construction of the children's safety education center.

Sheriff's Safety Town is selling 20 red maples and 25 crepe myrtles that will be planted within Safety Town, which is currently under construction at LA 3132 and Jewella Avenue. The cost of each tree is $250 and includes a donor plaque that will be placed at the foot of the tree, giving lifetime donor recognition.

"This is a lasting way to honor a loved one, recognize a civic group or charity for community involvement, or support the cause of keeping children safe in northwest Louisiana," said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

To purchase a tree, call the Sheriff's Office at 681-0666. Safety Town is expected to open in Fall, 2008.

Southern Hills in general was very blessed relative to the damage we experienced from Hurricanes Gustav and Ike. The quick response of our businesses and residents to clean up and get back to business is commendable.

Look around at the new construction and new businesses in our area. Note the apartment complex at the corner of Dean Road and Bert Kouns and the new storage facility on Alkay Drive. We welcome Metro Cell in the Kilpatrick center on Jewella Avenue.

Plans are moving ahead for our annual Christmas in the Hills festivities scheduled for December 6, 2008. We have had a good response to our solicitation for financial help and are looking for some more volunteers. Our thanks to the Southern Hills Kiwanis for stepping forward as volunteers.

John
